An overview of the Scholarship:

This scholarship program was established by DICOTA leadership in 2017. The scholarship awards $1,000 (per year) to members who are currently attending universities in the US as undergraduate students. The purpose of this scholarship is to provide financial assistance to deserving young Tanzanians and to acknowledge their leadership, achievements and commitment to community engagement work.

The scholarship is funded by donations from DICOTA members, its leaders and corporate sponsors, including the Albemarle Foundation.

If you are interested in joining the DICOTA Young Leader Scholarship Committee, please contact us at scholarship@dicotaus.org. This is a wonderful opportunity to boost your community involvement while making a difference in people's lives.
