GLOBAL HEALTH CATALYST SUMMIT

JOIN US @ HARVARD MEDICAL SCHOOL April 28-30, 2017

WHAT IS IT ABOUT?

A premier yearly event designed to catalyze high impact international collaborations in cancer care, research and education: leveraging ICTs/low-cost technologies and unprecedented partnerships with the African Diaspora to turn brain drain to healthcare gain.

FEATURING · Inspiring talks · Knowledge sharing · Panels · Awards · Networking · Mentorship· workshops· Collaboration · Partnerships

More at:

www.globalhealthcatalystevents.org

BRIGHAM AND WOMEN'S HOSPITAL
DANA-FARBER CANCER INSTITUTE
HARVARD MEDICAL SCHOOL

ARA

UMASS LOWELL

TiDTaC Tiny Drones to Target Cancer

CATALYZING INTERNATIONAL COLLABORATIONS TO ELIMINATE CANCER

SESSIONS

- Harvard GHC win-win
- Africans in Diaspora (AiD) united against cancer
- ICTs for global oncology
- Nanomedicine and low-cost technologies
- Immuno-oncology and clinical trials
- Cancer diagnosis & therapy
- Palliative care
- Cancer prevention and advocacy
- Cancer & Sports
- Religion & Health
- AORTIC workshop
- Posters & Networking
- Awards and collaboration

KEY DEADLINES

- Scientific abstract and diaspora abstract submission by Feb. 15th
- Register by April 14th